Young III | Solid writing and atmosphere keeps this supernatural story swirling around the reader's head as its crisp prose and interesting characters propel its eerie story. Full disclosure: I've been friends with Don for over 20 years, and have seen him progress from promising tyro to smo | About the Author | Don Roff has written over a dozen books, primarily of a scary nature, for children and adults. His bestselling books include Werewolf Tales, Terrifying Tales, and Ghost Hauntings: America's Most Haunted Places published by Scholastic, and Mourning his son after a tragic accident, Staff Sergeant Samuel Mulwrey must command his Army Ranger platoon during cold-weather training in the wintry wilds of Alaska. It's his last chance to pull his troops – and himself – together. After a blinding whiteout separates Mulwrey and three other Rangers from their unit, they seek refuge in what seems like a cheerful, homey chalet nestled in the savage wilderness. Except nothing is as it appears. The plac
